

THE FUTURE IS ALL BRIGHT!

Hey there, Future Albrightian!

Welcome to the Lion fam! Ready to take the next steps to join the Albright class of 2027? Well, we are here to help you with some handy (always!) and useful (most of the time) tips.

First of all, let's square up some of the lingo you need to know!

com-mu-ni-ty /k(ə)'mju.nə.ti/ noun

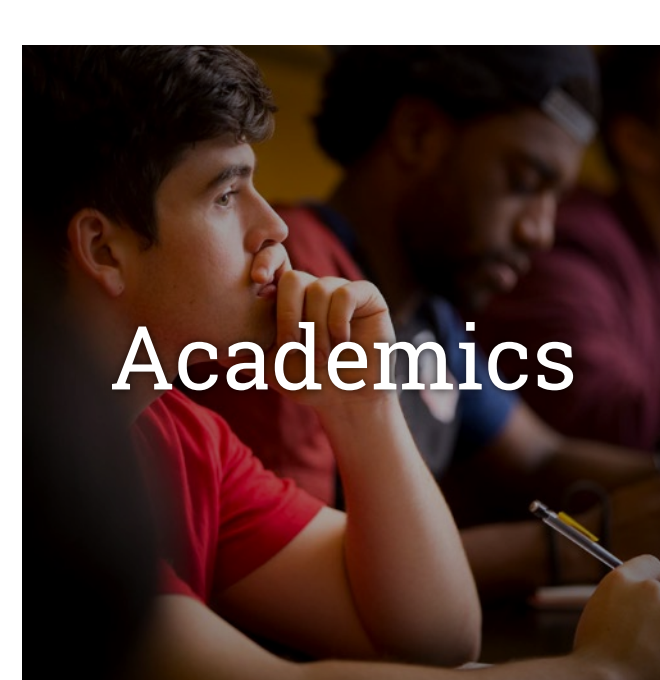

1. a feeling of fellowship with others, as a result of sharing common living space, characteristics, interests, and goals.
2. an American sitcom that aired on NBC for six seasons, starting in 2009.
3. the feeling of belonging to the Albright student body.

Ex: "Whoa, when you played that bop at the Pond tonight with everyone around, it felt so good to be around the Albright Community!"

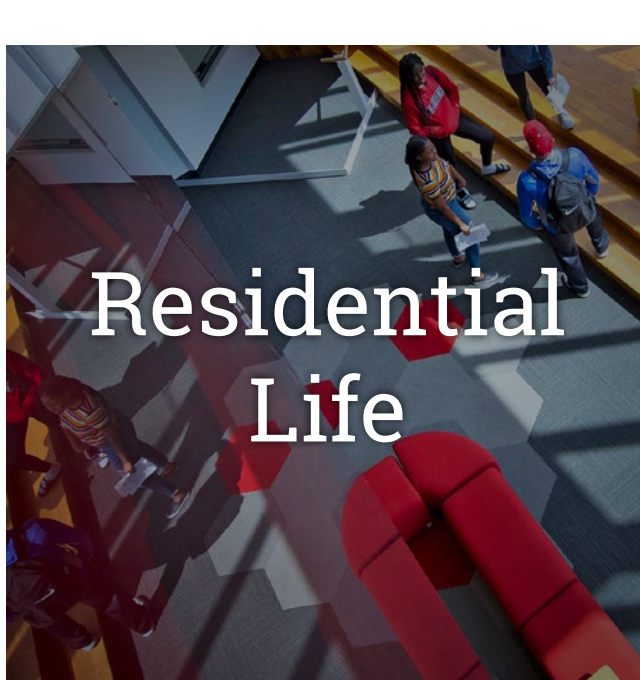

But wait, there is more! So much more!

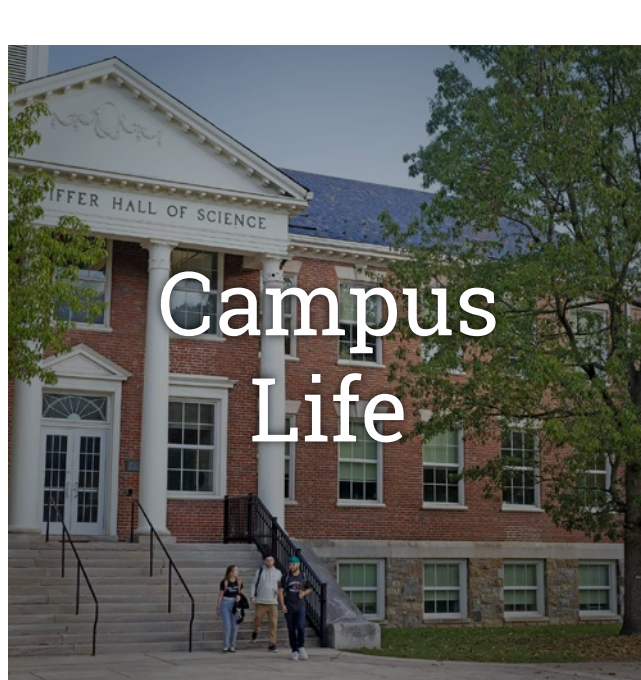

There is a whole dictionary of things that are uniquely Albrightian. See if you can find them all! Click on the links below to find out why students who call Albright 'home' can't wait to welcome you to the Albright family!

REDIRECT FROM EMAIL 2

ACRE /'ākər/ (noun)

1. A unit of land area equal to 4,840 square yards.
2. The Albright Creative Research Experience (ACRE), a student-led research experience over the summer (10 weeks) or January term (3 weeks), during which students and faculty learn from each other as they explore topics of interest from a vast array of disciplines.

Ex: "Did you hear about Jamie's research on the intersection of virtual reality and modern composition? They did it as an interim ACRE project!"

REDIRECT FROM EMAIL 3

4th Hour of Quality /fôrTH 'ou(ə)r 'kwälədē/ (noun)

1. The time between the 3rd hour and the 5th hour.
2. A fourth credit that students earn for each class by participating in included labs or weekly lectures, OR that can be earned through experiential learning, attending events, or collaborating with faculty.

Ex: "We went to a guest lecture series last night for Fourth-hour of quality credit, and it changed my life, no cap! I might have found my future career right there!"

GENERAL REDIRECT

Pillar (Pillars, pl) /'pīlər/ (noun)

1. A tall, vertical structure or stone, wood, or metal, used as a support for a building.
2. The foundation of Albright's core values that reflect our unique culture and sense of campus community that set the stage for the Albright student experience.

Ex: "We talk about integrity, curiosity, connection, and resilience a lot, and no wonder—everything we do is built on those concepts as the Albright pillars."
